

Erie National Wildlife Refuge

Upland Small Game/Migratory Bird Hunting

Welcome to Erie National Wildlife Refuge. The United States Fish and Wildlife Service established the refuge in 1959 primarily for migratory birds. Public hunting is a priority public use and can provide a quality recreational experience when pursued responsibly. We allow hunting of upland small game and migratory birds in accordance with Pennsylvania State laws and the following refuge specific regulations.

Upland small game and migratory bird hunting is permitted between September 1 through the end of February.

Permits
Hunting permits are no longer required. However, hunters are still required to know and follow all refuge specific regulations.

Dog Use
Dogs may be used for hunting but must be under the immediate control of the hunter.

Small Game and Furbearers
Hunting of ringneck pheasant, ruffed grouse, cottontail rabbit, squirrels, woodchuck, quail, skunk, fox, raccoon, opossum, weasel, porcupine, and coyote is permitted in Areas A and B.

Migratory Birds
Hunting of mourning dove, rails, common snipe, American woodcock, Canada goose, Mute swan, ducks, coot and crow is permitted in Area B.

MIGRATORY BIRD HUNTING IS NOT PERMITTED IN AREA A.

Access
We prohibit night hunting. Hunters may access the refuge 2 hours before sunrise and must leave no later than 2 hours after sunset.

EAGLE NESTS
Hunters must remain at least 330 feet away from all eagle nests from January 15th-August 15th.

Scouting
Scouting is allowed from August 25 through the end of February.

Personal Property
Hunters must remove decoys from the refuge daily. Blinds or tree stands may be placed two weeks prior to the area's season and must be removed within two weeks of the seasons end. The blind/stand must be clearly marked with the owner's name, address, or CID number.

Hunters are encouraged to use non-lead ammunition for rifle hunting and is voluntary until 2026.

Vehicles
Vehicle travel is allowed on designated roads and parking areas only. Vehicles must not block access to gates. ATVs and snowmobiles are not allowed.

Boats
We allow non-motorized watercraft to use for waterfowl hunting. All other watercraft use is prohibited.

To prevent the spread of invasive species such as zebra mussels, it is encouraged that all watercrafts be washed thoroughly prior to use on the refuge
