Program Descriptions

Turtle Talk

FREE. What are the differences between sea and land turtles? Why are sea turtles endangered? Learn about sea turtle conservation and how you can be part of the solution to save these gentle giants.

Pea Island Bird Walk

FREE. Pea Island is for the birds – actually! Pea Island National Wildlife Refuge has close to 400 species of birds that live here or pass through. Whether you're a beginner or an expert, you'll enjoy this casual stroll beside North Pond. Field guides, binoculars, sunscreen, and insect repellent are recommended. Some field guides and binoculars will be available for loan. Pea Island Bird Walks are held year-round except during the Wings Over Water Wildlife Festival in October and December.

Pollinator Partners

FREE. Join us to learn about the wide variety of pollinators and their vital role in our lives, from our plates to our protected lands. Discover different kinds of pollinators and native plants each week and discuss how you can help protect these important animals. After a short classroom session, we'll head outside to meet the pollinator pals visiting the refuge gardens and trails!

Bear Necessities

FREE. Reservation required. Reserve your spot online at coastal-nc-refuges.eventbrite.com. Alligator River National Wildlife Refuge is home to one of the largest populations of black bears in eastern North Carolina and the eastern United States. Learn more about what makes the refuge such a good home for our largest mammal. After a 30-minute presentation, you are free to explore the refuge in your vehicle to look for bears and other wildlife. Maps will be provided by your presenter.

Red Wolf Tour

FREE. Join us for a guided program on the endangered red wolf! Tours will begin at the Creef Cut parking lot with an introduction to the history and biology of the red wolf. From there, participants will return to their vehicles and follow staff along the Wildlife Drive within the home range of a wild red wolf family group. These tours do not guarantee that participants will see a wild red wolf, but they do serve as an opportunity to showcase the vast territory of the only wild red wolf population. Programs will not be offered in inclement weather.

Alligator River Canoe Tour

The Alligator River National Wildlife Refuge van tour is customized each time to look for the wildlife that interests participants the most. Refuge volunteers will drive the van around the refuge, stopping any time we see wildlife or sights of interest. The refuge isn't a zoo, so specific animals aren't guaranteed, but with thousands of animals living on the refuge, you never know what you'll see. We'll watch out for all these and more: black bears, river otters, turkeys, bald eagles, great blue herons, alligators, turtles, and endangered red wolves.
