Hi Matt. I recall during our discussion with Realty about the Pink House that something was mentioned about a property in NH that was no longer available. Was that the Hodgson property? If it is, I assume there is no need to move the RTI. If it was a different property just let me know so I can move the RTI. Thanks.

Hodgson is still good to go and is our only iron in the fire right now. The other one was sold to a developer (ugh)
