Expedited processing

yes

I ask that my request receive expedited processing because of the critical timeline set by FWS to demolish this asset of the United States in the next two months, and because we are trying to save it imminently and informing the public at regular meetings in the effort to provide information and secure a solution before the house is demolished. The information/documentation requested here is urgent as it is pertinent for informing the public at upcoming meetings in the effort to provide this urgent information and secure a solution supported by the community and others.
