Let me see what I can do. Don't wait for me though. I can always call in. I am in Spokane the 14th-16th, and had a previous commitment on the 17th for something related to a bird in the bush out in the Great Basin, though I'm told that I might now have that day available. If you plan for the 17th, that is probably my best bet for being able to join in.

Looks like you are only available on September 11th for a meeting with the Tribe. They are hoping that we could meet September 14, 15, 16, or 17 in the 1-3 time slot. I'm just checking to see if there is any hope that you might be able to shift things around and make one of those times.

Thanks,
Jennifer
