Here is a clean copy and a copy with all of the track changes (Kevin's and mine). The clean copy falls at a weird ending point. It would be great if Nicole could work her magic and get it to fit on one page.

Kevin made some really great suggestions. I did make a couple of changes to his recommended verbiage. Let me know if he needs more discussion on the rationale for changes.

Thanks to you all for helping us get this letter together.
