Format is totally fine. The only thing I can think might be an issue is the CPW logo. Let me ask. So this would replace Figure 3, pasted below:

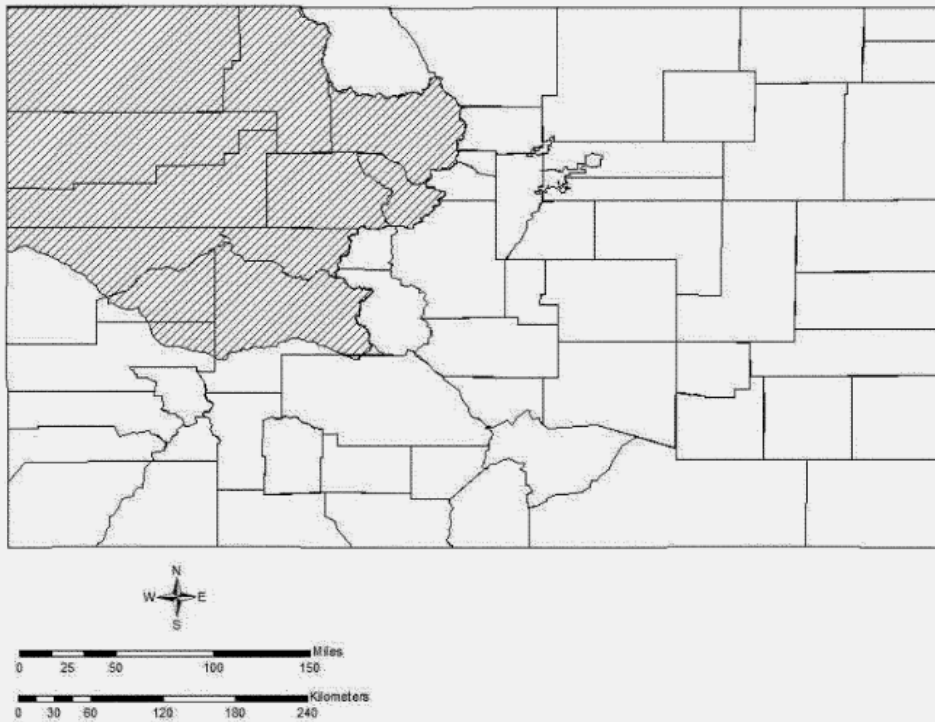

Figure 3. Map of the State of Colorado with county boundaries and the general area (crosshatched) for CPW's proposed initial (1-3 years) release site area for a nonessential experimental population (NEP) of gray wolves.

Craig, we asked CPW to provide a map (attached) of where they intend to release wolves. We wanted to know if we can use the format of the map, or do we need to request a different format from CPW.

...and, here is an updated map with counties which the first one did not have (Bob forgot to turn on the county layer).
